MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CARLISLE H. HEMELSHINE, DIRECTOR,
EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT, DEPARTMENT OF STATE

SUBJECT: Distribution List, Daily Summary

I have your letter of 16 February, requesting a revised distribution list for the CIA Daily TOP SECRET Summary. Accordingly, a copy of the list which was approved on 10 February 1948, is enclosed herewith for your file. The same information appears on the inside cover of each copy of the Daily. Any future changes which the National Security Council may make will, of course, be reflected by corresponding changes in the cover.

For your additional information, two copies of the Daily Summary are issued to the Director of Intelligence, GSUSA, and three copies to the Chief of Naval Intelligence. Otherwise, only one copy is issued to each recipient shown. The NSC leaves to CIA the matter of furnishing extra copies to a recipient which the NSC has authorized.

CIA does not feel that authority for the current distribution relates in any way to Appendix C of NIA Directive No. 2. It now rests entirely on National Security Council instructions to CIA. The NSC decision on which the current list rests became effective 11 February.
